

Get Involved!

The City of Union City encourages people to become involved in their local community.

One way to do so is to serve in an advisory capacity on one of the City's various boards or commissions. The City is currently accepting applications to fill positions on the Human Relations Commission, Park and Recreation Commission, Planning Commission, Public Art Board, and the Senior Citizens Commission.

How to Apply

If you are a resident or artist with a studio in the City of Union City and would like to apply for any of these positions, please feel free to stop by the City Clerk's office to pick up an application, or visit the City's website at: www.ci.union-city.ca.us

Applications for the Human Relations Commission, Park and Recreation Commission, Planning Commission, Public Art Board, and the Senior Citizens Commission will be accepted until positions are filled.

Positions Available:

Human Relations Commission

(2 alternate positions available)

The Human Relations Commission helps create an environment in which the human rights of every citizen may live, learn, work and play in harmony and brotherhood, promote people-to-people programs within the Sister Cities, and actively encourage participation of citizens and community organizations in projects involving international friendship and understanding in which each person may realize the highest potential unhampered by discrimination. The Human Relations Commission meets on the 4th Wednesday of each month at 7:00 pm.

Park and Recreation Commission

(1 regular position and 1 alternate position available)

The Parks and Recreation Commission helps create a recreation program which will promote physical fitness and stimulate interest in the fine arts, namely: literature, music, dance, drama, painting and sculpture. The Park and Recreation Commission meets on the 2nd Wednesday of each month at 7:00 pm.

Planning Commission

(2 regular positions and 1 alternate position available)

The Planning Commission serves as an advisory body to the City Council on matters related to City growth and development, promotes public interest in planning, and encourages citizen participation in the formulation of the General Plan. The Planning Commission meets on the 1st and 3rd Thursday of each month at 7:00 pm.

Public Art Board

(1 Resident Citizen-At-Large position, 1 Artist position available)

The Public Art Board reviews and advises the City Council, City staff and project sponsors on proposed public art installations within Union City. The Resident Citizen-At-Large position is open to any Union City resident. Applicants for the Artist position shall be artists with active portfolios of extant art works, and shall either be a resident of Union City or operate a studio within the City. The Public Art Board meets on an as-needed basis, and meetings are typically held on Tuesday evening's beginning at 5:00 p.m.

Senior Citizens Commission

(1 alternate position available)

The Senior Citizens Commission helps create and maintain a social environment in which all senior citizens can live in an independent, healthful and productive manner. The City recognizes the role that older adults can play in finding meaningful and creative solutions to the problems of the elderly, and values the contributions that they can make to the community at large. The Senior Citizens Commission meets on the 3rd Tuesday of each month at 2:30 pm.
