

FOR MEMBER OF THE CITY COUNCIL

Scott Sakakihara

Age: 37

Occupation: Planning Commissioner

I grew up in Union City. I met my wife, Melinda, at Pioneer Elementary, and we're raising our 4-year-old son and 2-year-old daughter in the same neighborhood where we grew up.

Union City set me on a great path. After attending Logan, I graduated from UC San Diego and Harvard Law School. I interned in Congress and the Obama White House. Now, I'm the finance chief of staff managing the budget for a tech company. I'm also an intelligence officer in the US Navy Reserves and recently returned from eight months in the Middle East.

As a Union City Planning Commissioner, I listen to constituents and make local government responsive, and as a candidate, I've knocked on every door in the district twice. Making sure everyone is heard is hard, but necessary to do the job well.

To ensure Union City is a great place for our kids to grow up, we need to invest in great parks and public services, support our schools, and address the housing affordability crisis for ALL families. It's on our generation to get to work.

Melinda is doing her part as a New Haven elementary school teacher. With your support, I'll do mine. I'm running for Union City Council and would be honored to have your vote.
